

Balboa Capital Accelerates Growth in Mining Equipment Financing Arena; Attends 2014 International Mining Conference and Expo as Featured Exhibitor

New Senior-Level Team Members, Increased Lending Capacity Enable Balboa Capital to Develop and Deliver Custom-Tailored Mining Equipment Financing Programs Nationwide. The Company will be a Featured Exhibitor at IMEX 2014 in Las Vegas, Nevada.

IRVINE, CALIFORNIA, September 17, 2014 - Balboa Capital, a top independent financing company that serves the needs of small businesses, middle-market companies and large corporations throughout the United States, has strengthened its mining equipment financing division with the appointment of three new finance directors. Additionally, the company recently increased its lending capacity with a $152 million securitization. Balboa Capital will be a featured exhibitor at the 2014 International Mining Conference and Expo, which is the second major US mining event the company has participated in during the past four months.

"The US mining industry is growing, and so too is the demand for capital equipment," said Dale Schwartz, Director of Specialty Markets at Balboa Capital. "Our clients want to work with finance directors who have a deep understanding of mining and exploration, and we responded by adding staff members to meet their demands." Balboa Capital offers mining equipment financing programs ranging from $1 million to $100 million.

Balboa Capital will be a featured exhibitor at the 2014 International Mining Conference and Expo (IMEX) in Las Vegas from September 23-25. "Our attendance at IMEX 2014 underscores our commitment to serving mining companies nationwide," said Mr. Schwartz. "We look forward to strengthening our existing client relationships and establishing new partnerships with mining companies, mining equipment vendors and business consultants who can benefit from our equipment financing program." Balboa Capital's mining equipment financing experts will be on the floor at booth #648 to answer questions and share information about the company's mining equipment financing capabilities.
